Defence & Security · GS - III

Ethnic violence in India's Northeast highlights the complex relationship between internal security, social tensions and governance. Discuss the measures required to restore peace and ensure lasting stability in Manipur.

EXAM YEAR	PAPER	SUBJECT
DAILY PRACTICE 21/10/2026	GS - III	Defence & Security

MARKS	WORD LIMIT
10	~150 words

Answer Hint

Ethnic tensions, illegal weapons, intelligence coordination, state police, central security forces, tribal concerns, dialogue, rehabilitation, border management, inclusive development, rule of law, peacebuilding.

Model Answer

Introduction

Manipur faces complex internal security challenges arising from ethnic tensions, armed violence and competing social and political concerns. Incidents involving killings, illegal weapons and public protests can further weaken trust and disturb law and order.

Main Body

1. Strengthening Internal Security

- Improve intelligence-sharing between state police and central security forces.
- Identify illegal weapons and explosives networks and take lawful action against those responsible.
- Protect vulnerable communities and prevent retaliatory violence.
-

2. Promoting Dialogue and Reconciliation

- Facilitate dialogue among ethnic communities, tribal organisations and civil society.
- Address grievances through impartial administration and constitutional safeguards.
- Counter rumours and hate speech through responsible communication.
-

3. Ensuring Long-term Stability

- Support displaced families and provide rehabilitation and livelihood opportunities.
- Strengthen development, education and employment in conflict-affected areas.
- Improve coordination between the Centre and State while upholding human rights and the rule of law.
-

Conclusion

Lasting peace in Manipur requires a balanced approach combining effective security measures, inclusive governance and sustained dialogue. Building trust among communities is essential for restoring normalcy and ensuring long-term stability in the Northeast.

BECOME IAS
AI POWERED UPSC PREP